

Irish Association for Palliative Care Annual Conference 2013

21st Century Questions for Palliative Care: Current and challenging themes for Palliative Care

PROGRAMME

Friday 8 November 2013 — Alexander Hotel, Dublin 2

8.30 - 9.15	REGISTRATION / TEA AND COFFEE AVAILABLE
9.20 - 9.30	OPENING AND WELCOME Dr Margaret Clifford, IAPC Chairperson, Clinical Tutor/Research Fellow in Medicine, Graduate Entry Medical School, University of Limerick
9.30 - 10.00	KEYNOTE ADDRESS - "Palliative Care in the 21st Century" – how did we get here, are we there yet, what are the challenges Dr Regina McQuillan, Consultant in Palliative Medicine, St Francis Hospice and Beaumont Hospital, Dublin
10.00 - 10.30	KEYNOTE ADDRESS 2 - "Rising to the challenge of palliative care for non-malignant disease" Dr Jonathan Koffman, Senior Lecturer in Palliative Care, Cicely Saunders Institute and King's College, London
10.30 - 11.00	"Integrated care pathways for dying patients" – myths, misunderstandings and realities in clinical practice Dr Carol Davis, Lead Consultant in Palliative Medicine and Clinical End of Life Care Lead, University Hospital Southampton NHS Foundation Trust
11.00 - 11.30	Tea/Coffee break
11.30 - 12.00	"Has Palliative Care Nursing lost its way" Dr Bridget Johnston, Reader in Palliative Care & Deputy Programme Lead Personalizing Care, University of Dundee
12.00 - 13.00	FINDING YOUR VOICE – BEREAVEMENT, PSYCHOSOCIAL AND SPIRITUAL CARE 12.00-12.30 "Bereavement Care – who's responsible?" Irene Murphy, Director Bereavement & Family Support Services, Marymount Hospice, Cork 12.30-13.00 "Spiritual care – leave it to the chaplains?" Dr Rev Andrew Goodhead, Spiritual Care Lead, St Christopher's Hospice, UK
13.00 - 14.00	LUNCH
14.00 - 14.10	AFTERNOON CHAIR'S OPENING REMARKS
14.10 - 14.30	"The Patient Journey and the interface between services" Dr Paul Gegan, GP and Consultant in Palliative Medicine, Blackrock Hospice
14.30 - 14.50	"The Palliative Care Programme" – what can it offer to improvements in patient care in the 21st Century?" Dr Karen Ryan, Consultant in Palliative Medicine, St Francis Hospice & the Mater University Hospital, & Clinical Lead Palliative Care, HSE Clinical Programmes
14.50 - 15.20	ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION
15.20 - 15.50	PANEL DISCUSSION AND Q&A
15.50 - 16.00	CLOSING REMARKS Dr Margaret Clifford, IAPC Chairperson
16.00	CONFERENCE CLOSES
16.10	IAPC Annual General Meeting (IAPC Members ONLY)